

Maintain datasets

To create datasets in Fuse, follow these steps:

- Log in to Fuse using your admin credentials.
- Click on the “Data” tab.
- Click on the plus icon.
- Click on the dropdown arrow.
- Click on the standard option from the dropdown.
- Enter the dataset name.
- Enter the dataset name.
- Enter the dataset description. The company ID will be auto populated.
- Select the parent dataset from the list. Adding parent dataset is completely optional.
- Select the display criteria. You can select the display criteria as code, code and text and text form.
- Once done, click on the create option to create the dataset.

Adding fields to the dataset

To add fields to the dataset, follow these steps:

- Click on the pencil icon.
- Click on the new field option to start adding fields.
- Search and select fields from the list to add. You need to add field properties to the added field.
- Add field properties like name, length of the field.
- Select the field data type. Field's data type as a set of qualities that applies to all the values that are contained in the field.
- Select the text case from the dropdown.
- In the field help section, enter the information for field on mouse hover of input